THE NEPHITE RECORDS.

An Angel from on high,
The long, long silence broke,
Descending from the sky,
These gracious words he spoke:
Lo! in Cumorah's lonely hill
A sacred record lies concealed.

Seal'd by Moroni's hand,
It has for ages slept,
To wait the Lords command
From dust again to speak;
It shall come forth to light again,
To usher in Messiah's reign.

It speaks of Joseph's seed,
And makes the remnant known,
Of nations long since dead,
Who once had dwelt alone:
The fulness of the gospel too
Its pages will reveal to view.

The time is now fulfilled,—
The long expected day,—
Let Earth obedient yield,
And darkness flee away:—
Open the seals and wide unfurl
Its light and glory to the world.

Lo! Israel, filled with joy,
Shall now be gathered home;—
Their wealth and means employ
To build Jerusalem:
While Zion shall arise and shine,
And fill the earth with truth divine.

NOTICE TO AGENTS.

Our Elders and others, who wish to act as Agents for the Star will please send us their orders, addressed to the Editor of the MILLENNIAL STAR, (post paid), No. 149, OLDHAM ROAD, MANCHESTER; with particular directions how and where they wish them directed. The number called for will be then forwarded monthly without delay

☞ The expence of conveyance to be paid out of the avails, and Agents entitled to every 10th No. gratis. It will be seen that our terms are more liberal than in the first No.—Our reasons for this are first, a wish to conform to the customary way of doing business in this Country, and secondly, our success in the sale of the Star is such as to enable us to be more liberal than we at first expected.

HYMN BOOKS.

Very many are desirous of having a Hymn Book suited to the principles of the Everlasting Covenant; it is now Printing, and we hope to have them ready against the July conference.

VOICE OF WARNING.

This valuable work is all sold which we had on hand, and we have calls daily which we hope soon to be able to supply, as we have sent to America for a few hundred until we can reprint them in England.

HISTORY OF THE LATE PERSECUTION OF THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS IN AMERICA.

We have a few copies of this on hand, and we have sent to America for a new supply.

POEMS AND TREATISE ON THE REGENERATION, AND ETERNAL DURATION OF MATTER.

We have a plenty of these on hand at present, and we have sent for a new supply.

BOOK OF MORMON.

This valuable work is out of print, both in America and England. Thousands are wanted in both countries, which cannot at present be supplied; but they are printing a large edition in America, and we are now preparing to publish them in this country.

N. B.—Our general book establishment for England will be at the STAR OFFICE, No. 149, OLDHAM ROAD, MANCHESTER, where our Agents and the Public can procure such works as we may have on hand.

STRANGER AND HIS FRIEND

I.

A poor wayfaring man of grief
Hath often cross'd me on my way,
Who sued so humbly for relief
That I could never answer Nay:
I had not power to ask his name,
Whither he went or whence he came;
Yet there was something in his eye
That won my love, I know not why.

II.

Once when my scanty meal was spread,
He enter'd; not a word he spake;
Just perishing for want of bread;
I gave him all: he bless'd it, brake;
And ate, but gave me part again;
Mine was an angel's portion then,
For while I fed with eager haste,
The crust was manna to my taste.

III.

I spied him where a fountain burst
Clear from the rock;—his strength was gone;
The heedless water mock'd his thirst,
He heard it, saw it, hurrying on:
I ran and raised the sufferer up,
Thrice from the stream he drain'd my cup,
Dip't and return'd it running o'er;
I drank, and never thirst more.

IV.

'Twas night, the floods were out, it blew
A winter hurricane aloof;
I heard his voice abroad, and flew
To bid him welcome to my roof:
I warm'd, I clothed, I cheered my guest,
I laid him on my couch to rest,
Then made the earth my bed, and seem'd
In Eden's garden while I dream'd.

V.

Stript, wounded beaten, nigh to death,
I found him by the highway side;
I roused his pulse, brought back his breath,
Revived his spirit, and supplied
Wine, oil, refreshment; he was heal'd;
I had, myself, a wound conceal'd,
But from that hour forget the smart,
And peace bound up my broken heart,

VI.

In prison I saw him next.—condemn'd
To meet a traitor's doom at morn;
The tide of lying tongues I stemm'd,
And honor'd him mid'st shame and scorn:
My friendship's utmost zeal to try,
He ask'd— if I for him would die;
The flesh was weak, my blood ran chill,
But the free Spirit cried, "I will."

VII.

Then in a moment to my view,
The stranger started from disguise;
The tokens in his hands I knew,
My saviour stood before mine eyes;
He spake—and my poor name he named,—
"Of me thou hast not been ashamed,
"These deeds shall thy memorial be;
"Fear not, thou didst them unto me."

HYMNS,

COMPOSED BY A JEW.

O weep for those that wept by Babel's stream,
Whose shrines are desolate, whose land a dream;
Weep for the harp of Judah's broken shell;
Mourn!—where their God hath dwelt the Godless dwell.

And where shall Israel lave her bleeding feet?
And where shall Zion's songs again seem sweet,
And Judah's melody once more rejoice
The hearts that leap'd before its heavenly voice?

Tribes of the wand'ring foot and weary breast,
How shall ye flee away and be at rest?
The wild dove hath her nest, the fox his cave,
Mankind their country—Israel but the grave.

Let the thick veil of darkness be roll'd from before thee,
O Lord, and descend on the wing of the storm;
Dispers'd and enslav'd are the sons that adore thee,
And the rude hands of strangers thy temple deform;

And Salem, lov'd Salem, lies low and degraded,
While far from her ruins in exile we pine:
Yet still is the hope of thy remnant unfaded,—
The word that inspir'd it, Jehovah, is thine.

Alas! we were warned, but reck'd not the warning,
Till our warriors grew weak in the day of despair,
And our glory was fled as the light of the morning,
That gleams for a moment, and melts into air.

As trampled the heathen o'er Zion's sad daughter,
She wept tears of shame o'er her guilt and her woe;
For the voice of her God had commission'd the slaughter,
The rod of his vengeance had pointed the blow.

Tho' foul are the sins, O thou lost one, which stain thee,
The blood of the Lamb yet can wash them away;
Tho' galling and base are the bonds that enchain thee,
The God that impos'd them can lighten their sway.

For a Star yet shall rise o'er the darkness of Judah,
A Branch yet shall flourish on Jesse's proud stem,
And Zion shall triumph o'er those who subdued her—

HYMN 452. S.M.

FROM THE REV. JOHN WESLEY'S COLLECTION.

Almighty God of Love,
Set up th' attracting sign,
And summon whom thou dost approve
For messengers divine.

From favour'd Abraham's seed
The new Apostles choose,
In isles and continents to spread
The dead-reviving news.

Them, snatched out of the flame,
Through every nation send,
The true Messiah to proclaim,
The universal Friend:

That all, the God unknown,
May learn of Jews to adore,
And see thy glory in thy Son
Till time shall be no more.

O that the chosen band
Might now their brethren bring,
And, gather'd out of every land,
Present to Sion's King:

Of all the ancient race,
Not one be left behind;
But each, impell'd by secret grace,
His way to Canaan find.

We know it must be done,
For God hath spoke the word;
All Israel shall the Saviour own,
To their first state restor'd.

Rebuilt by his command,
Jerusalem shall rise;
Her temple on Moriah stand
Again, and touch the skies.

Send, then, thy servants forth,
To call the Hebrews home;
From east & west, from south & north,
Let all the wanderers come:

Where'er in lands unknown
The fugitives remain,
Bid every creature help them on,
Thy holy Mount to gain.

An offering to their Lord,
There let them all be seen,
Sprinkled with water and with blood,
In soul and body clean:

With Israel's myriads seal'd,
Let all the nations meet,
And show the mystery fulfilled,
Thy family complete.

HYMN.

(From the Times and Seasons.)

THE WORD OF WISDOM,

BY MISS ELIZA R. SNOW.

"For to one is given by the spirit, the word of wisdom."
1*st Cor.* xii. 8.

The Lord imparted from above
The word of wisdom for our blessing!
But shall it unto many prove
A gift that is not worth possessing?

Have we not been divinely taught,
To heed its voice and highly prize it?
Then who shall once indulge the thought
It can be better to dispise it?

Has self-denial grown a task?
Or has that word been vainly spoken?
Or why, I fain would humbly ask,
Why is that word, so often broken?

It is the straight and narrow way,
That leads to the Celestial City;
That high taught saints should go astray,
Thro' gentile customs, is a pity.

O that the saints would all regard
Each gracious word that God has given,
And prize the favor of the Lord
Above all things beneath the heaven.
